Concert Percussion

Week 1: June 20th – June 26th

Hands-on sessions cover all facets of contemporary percussion (including; timpani, keyboards, steel drums, latin percussion, and drum set) as well as special sessions with guest clinicians. Opportunities for hands-on participation are a vital part of the daily schedule. All participants perform in a percussion ensemble.

Marching Percussion

Week 2: June 27th – July 3rd

Focus is on fundamental skills of the marching percussion section. Students get hands-on experience with snare, tenor, bass, cymbals and sideline percussion. Special sessions with guest clinicians. All participants perform in a marching percussion ensemble.

About the Hohner Institute of Percussion:

Based in Mid-Michigan, the Hohner Institute of Percussion was established to increase the awareness of percussion throughout Michigan. The legacy created by Robert Hohner is being continued through the many educational and performance-based activities of this institution.

About the Alma College Percussion Studio:

The Alma College Percussion Ensemble, founded in 1989 by David Zerbe, is a multi-faceted performance ensemble. The group performs traditional chamber music as well as world music, jazz, and steel drum music. The ensemble has been invited to perform at many prestigious festivals and conferences. Members of the ensemble are in demand throughout the state as private instructors, and percussion ensemble and marching percussion coaches.
